ABOUT ORGANIZATION

VISION

To create awareness and develop local networks for a democratic and peaceful society where people enjoy equal rights and opportunities to lead lives with honor and self-respect

MISSION STATEMENT

To empower communities by building their capacities to achieve just and participatory development. We aim to mobilize local and external resources with a focus on women and children.

It was established by a group of community-based farmers and development-oriented local leaders to uplift deprived and marginalized segments of society. CA focuses on raising awareness about rights, fostering empowerment, and promoting participation in decision-making. Through rights-based and humanitarian efforts, CA addresses economic empowerment, political sensitization, social welfare, health, education, agriculture, environment, livelihood, disaster management, child rights, and women's skills development. Our ultimate goal is to enhance living standards for marginalized communities. With a dedicated team of professionals and volunteers, CA excels in financial management, project planning, and implementation. Over the years, we have successfully completed initiatives addressing rights-based and humanitarian challenges in target communities, particularly during emergencies and disasters.

GOAL

To improve the living standards of vulnerable communities through a rights-based development approach and humanitarian assistance, leveraging community mobilization, capacity building, advocacy, and institutional strengthening at the grassroots level.

ORGANIZATION BELIEVES

- In the potential power of the poor and rural people to participate actively in development initiatives within their community.
- Equal opportunity for man and women in society irrespective of class, age, ethnic, culture or religion.
- All Human Rights for all.
- In social harmony free from communal bias.
- Freedom for work, education and development.

HISTORY AND LEGAL STATUS

The need, desire and idea to establish Community Aid (CA) was taken in March, 1988. However, after series of community-based interventions which led to some positive impact and achievements, the Organization was formerly, legally registered with the social welfare department in 01 Aug, 1989 (with Registration Number DDSW (DGK) 27/89 UNDER THE VOLUNTARY SOCIAL WELFARE AGENCIES REGISTRATION AND CONTROL ORDINANCE, 1961 (Ordinance XLVI of 1961). Moreover registered with charity Commission Punjab and Community Aid (CA) is also Approved from Economic Affairs Division (EAD) Govt of Pakistan.

WELCOME MESSAGE

MEHVISH JAMEEL

PRESIDENT

At Community Aid, we are driven by a shared vision to uplift and empower marginalized communities through innovation, dedication, and collaboration. Every initiative we undertake reflects our commitment to fostering sustainable change and addressing the root causes of inequality. Together, with the unwavering support of our team, partners, and stakeholders, we continue to strive for a society where dignity, equity, and opportunity are accessible to all.

NAEEM AKBAR KHAN
